Quo Vadis Days is a four-day camp for Catholic young men who are striving to follow God’s call in their lives and who are considering the priesthood or seminary formation or who are wondering if God is calling them to a religious vocation.

“Quo Vadis” is the Latin phrase for “Where are you going?”

The legend is that St. Peter was fleeing the persecution of Nero and leaving Rome when he saw Jesus heading into Rome. Peter asks Jesus, “Lord, where are you going?” Jesus responds, “To Rome to be crucified.” Then Jesus disappeared. At that moment Peter headed back into Rome to face martyrdom where he was martyred by being crucified upside-down.
