ST. MARK SEMINARY DISCERNMENT WEEKEND MARCH 23-24, 2024 INFORMATION SHEET

Here are some details about the weekend:

- The weekend begins at 1:00 PM on Saturday, March 23rd. However, attendees are welcome to arrive any time after 12:00 noon that day.
- Please enter the building through the Main Entrance. The address for St. Mark Seminary (also referred to as St. Mark Catholic Center) is:
 - 429 East Grandview Boulevard – Erie, PA 16504
- Please remember to bring the completed Parent Permission Form with you. Those under 18 years of age must have their parents complete the lower portion of the form.
- Here is a recommended packing list:
 - Clothes for the weekend.
 - Casual (jeans or casual pants, T-shirt, sneakers)
 - Dress clothes for Sunday Mass (polo shirt or button-down oxford shirt, dress pants, dress shoes, dress socks)
 - Dress for the weather. We will be outside and likely visit some area sites, so wear clothes and bring coats appropriate for the weather.
 - Toiletries
 - Shampoo
 - Toothbrush and toothpaste
 - Shaving supplies (if needed)
 - Contact lens supplies (if needed)
 - Prescription medication (if needed)
 - Rosary
 - Pen/pencil and journal
- The seminary will supply a bed with sheets, pillow, and a blanket. We also have bars of soap, but you are welcome to bring your own if you wish.
- Each attendee will have his own room or may share a room with another attendee depending on the number of rooms available. Each room has its own sink, desk, chair, and lamp. Toilets and showers are down the hallway.
- Palm Sunday Mass will be held Sunday morning, March 24th, at 9:30 AM in the seminary chapel followed by brunch.
- The Discernment Weekend will conclude at noon on Sunday. Parents or others who are picking up the attendees can pick up the attendees at noon on Sunday at the Main Entrance of St. Mark Seminary.
